

2020-2021 DEAN'S DISSERTATION FELLOWSHIP

The Graduate School is pleased to solicit applications for the Dean's Dissertation Fellowships for the 2020-2021 academic year.

The Dean's Dissertation Fellowships award a generous stipend of $20,000 for the 2020-21 academic year paid in equal biweekly installments. The fellowship also includes an award of student fellowship health benefits (click here for information).

School 26 graduate students, in good standing, who anticipate completing all of their doctoral program coursework, required research credits, and proposal defense by May 1, 2020 are eligible to apply. Please confirm your eligibility with your program director before applying.

Interested students should complete the online application here. The submission must also include: (i) a three-to-five page Statement of Research articulating the dissertation's research questions, central hypotheses, relevant literature, intended methodology, and contribution to the field; (ii) a detailed timeline mapping how the dissertation will be completed and defended before May 1, 2021; and (iii) a current curriculum vitae (CV).

Applications must be submitted by 4:00pm EST on Thursday, February 6, 2020.
